IMPORTANT! Tax Registration Information. Please keep on file.

Congratulations! You are now registered to operate a business in Washington. Your Unified Business Identifier (UBI) number shown above is also your Department of Revenue (DOR) tax registration number. Please refer to this number any time you contact us for assistance.

Your reporting dates

Your business needs to report taxes annually. Your tax return is due January 31 following the taxable period (e.g. January 1 through December 31 of the previous year).

Based on your business open date, the first return you must file is the Annual 2008 return and is due on January 31, 2009. We will mail your return to you.

How to file your return

- E-file on our web site. Filing your state excise tax return electronically saves time and helps your business avoid penalties by calculating taxes due and flagging potential errors. To get started on E-file, go to <http://dor.wa.gov>. You will also need your Pre-assigned Access Code (PAC). This is printed below your UBI Number on the front page of this letter.
- Request a printed form. Call our Telephone Information Center at 1-800-647-7706 to request tax return forms using the automated system or speak to a tax representative.
- Download forms. Go to our website at <http://dor.wa.gov>.

If you do not have business activity in a particular period

You must file a tax return even if you did not have any business to report. See the instructions on the tax return to learn how to report correctly when your business did not have activity, or call us for help.

Questions

Contact your local DOR office, the Telephone Information Center at 1-800-647-7706, or visit our web site at <http://dor.wa.gov>.

Please contact us immediately if your account information changes or your business closes.

Good luck with your new business!

You must submit a Master Application and file with the Corporations Division of the Secretary of State before you can legally operate as a corporation, limited liability company, or other business organization type that requires registration with the Washington Secretary of State.
